November Walk - Bruce Price

This walk is one of 5 listed in the “letsgo.co.uk” web site as the Silsoe Church – Higham Gobion circular walk. After the usual formalities of ordering our food at “The Star and Garter”, the group of 14 walkers set off down the Wrest Park access road to cross the A6 via the road bridge. Following the bridle way south, passing through Buckle Grove, crossing a ploughed field, a road and then passing Fielden Farm and on through a small copse. Following the marked footpath to cross two (un-ploughed) fields to pick up a track that leads to Higham Gobion. At a kissing gate on this track we turned left to passing through several meadows and kissing gates to enter a meadow with some rather frisky horses. Ignoring the presence of the horses, we picked up the footpath leading from Higham Gobion back to Wrest Park. Passing through a field with evidence of earthworks and fish ponds, we continued northwards, crossing a road to enter a wood. Keeping to the path we entered an industrial estate leading to the access road back to the Pub, stopping for a photograph in front of Wrest Hall.

The walk was measured at 5.5 miles.
