July Walk – Mike Lock

17 walkers set out from the New Sun Inn in Kimbolton on a fine warm morning. The five-mile route took us North along High Street and through St Andrew's Church grounds into an older part of Kimbolton, over the River Kym and eastwards into open countryside towards the village of Stonely. We then turned South past College Farm following a long rising path through large fields of cereals to Pertenhall where we had fine views to the South over Pertenhall Church before descending into Wood End to the West, eventually reaching a path to the North. This path led us on a rising route to Park Farm after which we reached a fine viewpoint to the North over Kimbolton. A long descent through more fields of cereals took us into the grounds of Kimbolton School where the path led us on into the High Street for our lunch in the New Sun Inn.

There is not a walk planned for August. The next walk will be on 14th September. Details of this will be published in next month's newsletter.

ARA Walks 2009 - 2016

I have put route details for these 75 walks on the internet. There is an overview map and two lists of the walks, one sorted chronologically, the other geographically at www.krose.plus.com/ARA_walks/ The lists contain links to Wikiloc where there are details of each walk and route maps and tracks can be downloaded.
